Patrick and Mary Cassidy do not appear to have had any children of their own, however some time before 1901, they seem to have adopted Mary's sister Ellen's two youngest daughters - Matilda and Jane Morrison Cameron. They had already been looking after young James GREEN (the son of their brother John) following the death of his parents. In the 1901 census they had renamed the girls Moya and Susan, but in 1911 Patrick and Mary had moved back to Dublin with the girls and they appeared in the census with their real names. But within the family they

Following the death of her husband, Moya Matilda emigrated to Australia. Also buried in Botany Cemetery, Sydney are her brother's William and Alexander, and sister Maggie. I believe Alexander's mother Ellen also accompanied him on the trip to Australia in 1920 aboard the Militiades. However, I have not been able to find her death in either Australia or Scotland.
